ATTICA HIGH SCHOOL

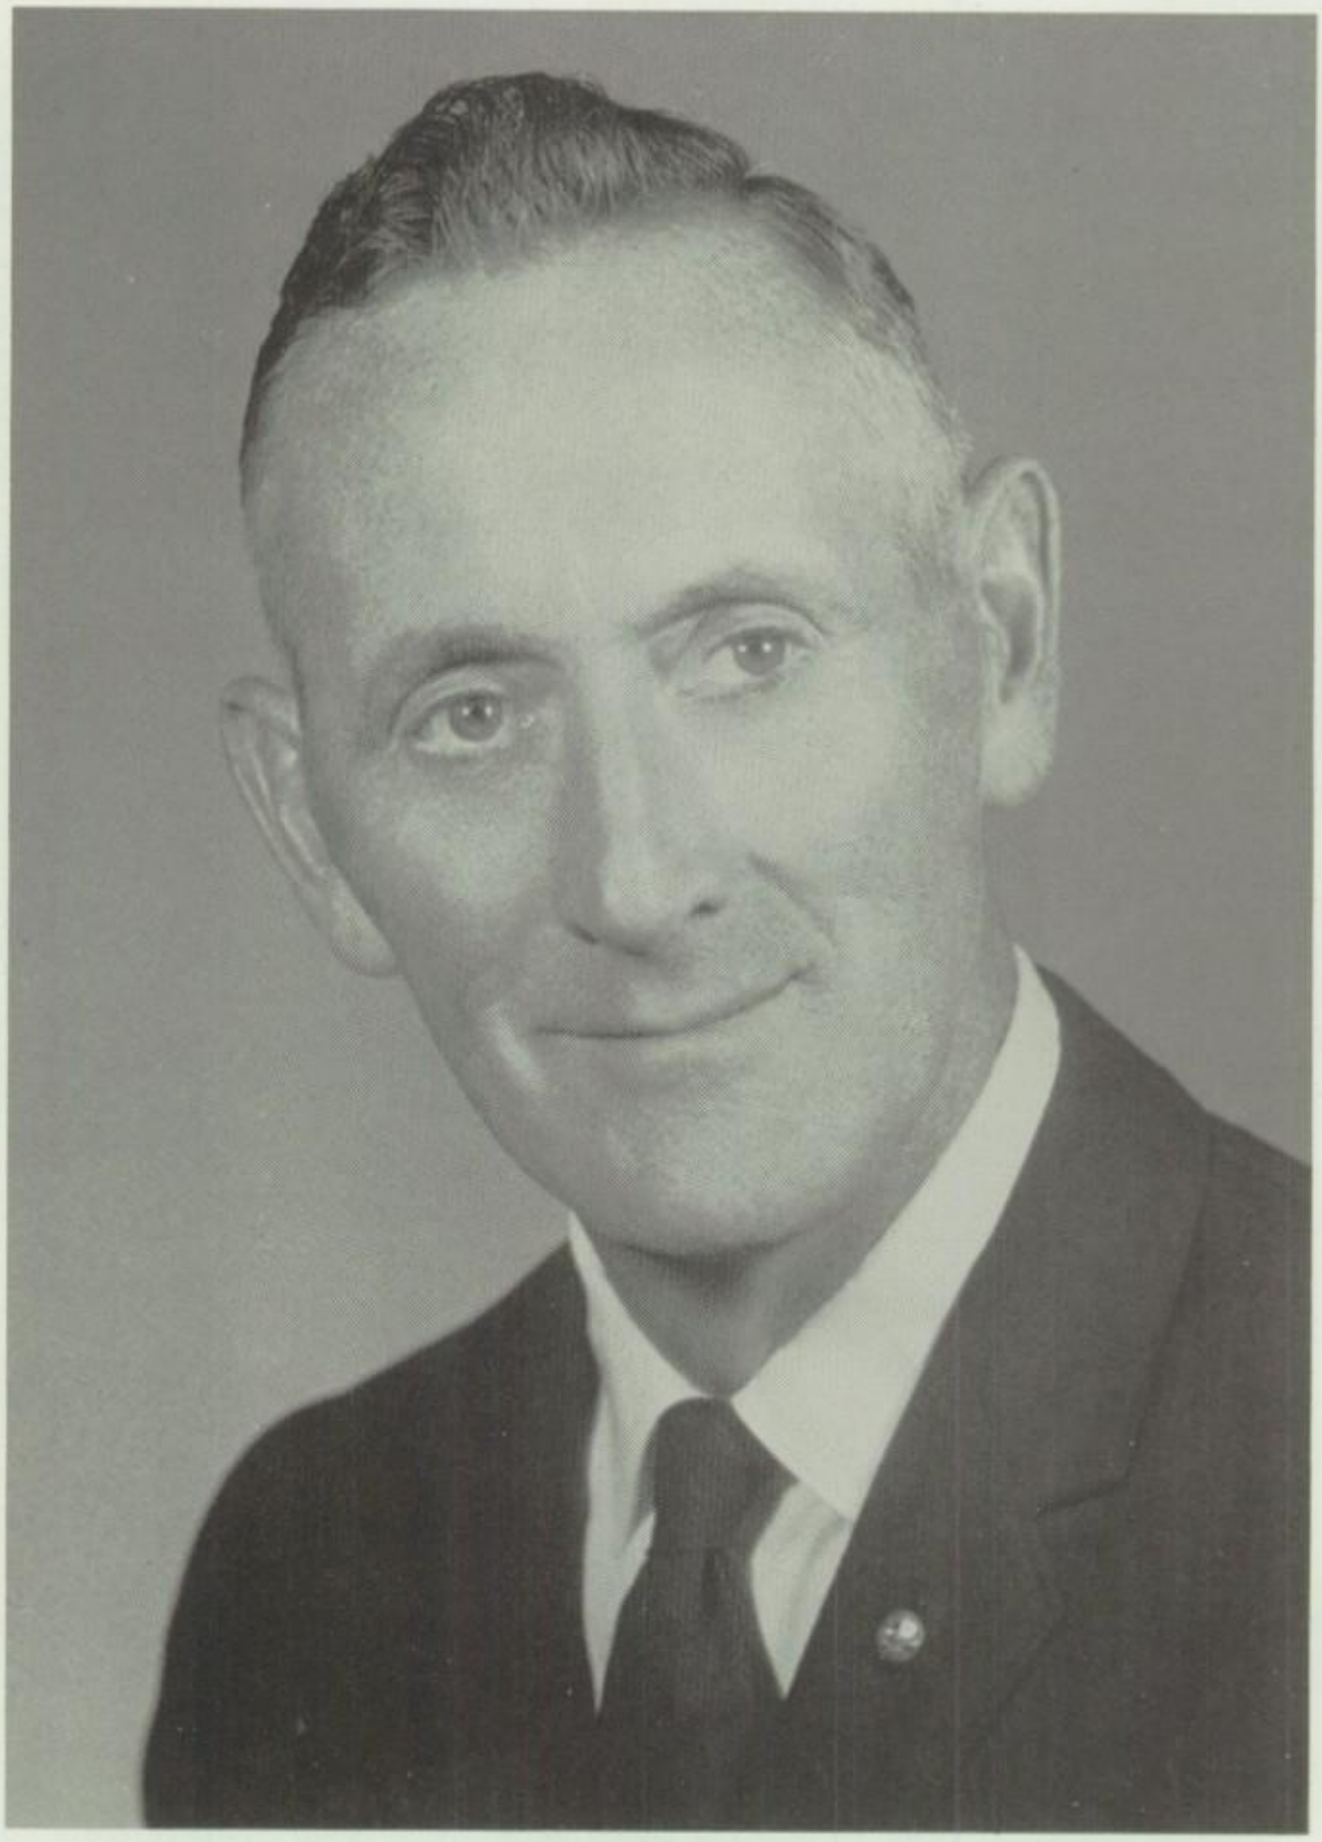
ATTICA, INDIANA

Dedication

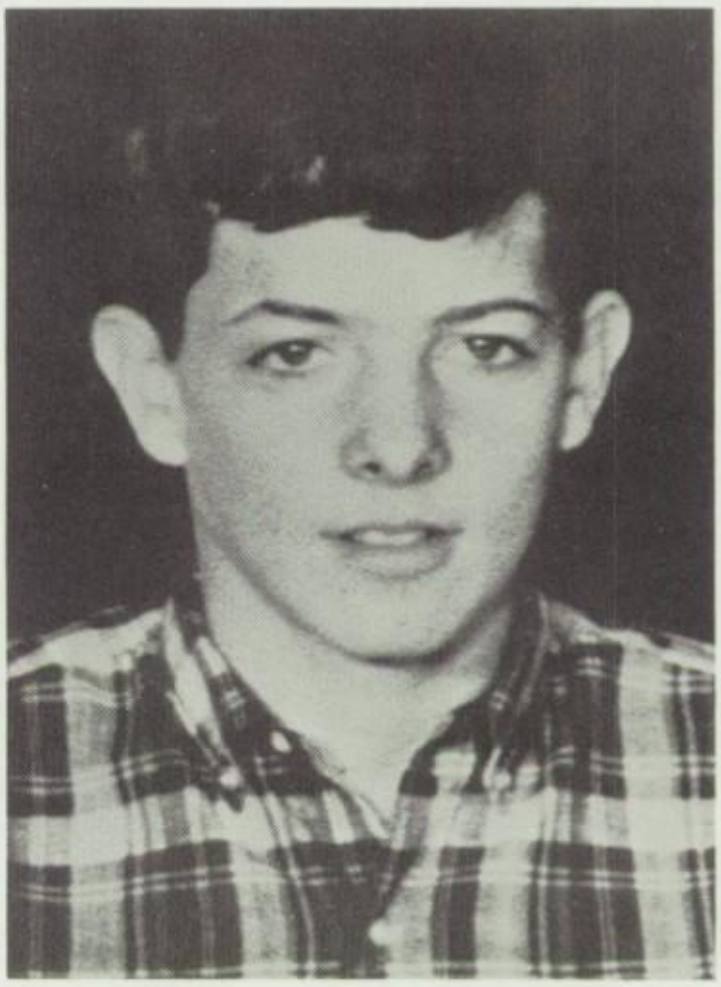


We, the Crimson staff are very proud to dedicate this yearbook to a man who has shown his kindness, unselfishness, and friendliness to all faculty and student body members, a man who never fails to greet everyone with a cheery "hello", a man who always does just a little more than needs to be done because of the delight he finds in making everyone happier.

To show a small token of our deep indebtedness and appreciation, we dedicate this Crimson of 1967 to you, Ralph Smart.

In Memoriam

RICHARD CARLSON



STEPHEN FLETCHER

In loving memory of Dick Carlson and Steve Fletcher, who left us tragically the summer of their Senior and Junior year.

Foreword

This school year has meant something different to each and every one of us. Whether they are sad or happy, the memories remain. For many, it will be the thrill of winning that all-important game, and to others, the loss of a beloved classmate. And the awe of the Juniors as they gaze upon the Prom they have worked so hard to produce, and for the Seniors, the leaving of our private little world here at A.H.S. to enter new and challenging worlds of their own. Cramming for tests, dancing the "jerk", crowding onto the fan buses . . . yes, these and many more are the memories that will stay with us for the many years to come.

The CRIMSON staff has attempted to catch some of these memories for you, so that you may look back . . . and remember.

Happiness is passing your unknown in chemistry.

Knowing that you'll be the first out of the parking lot at 3:40!

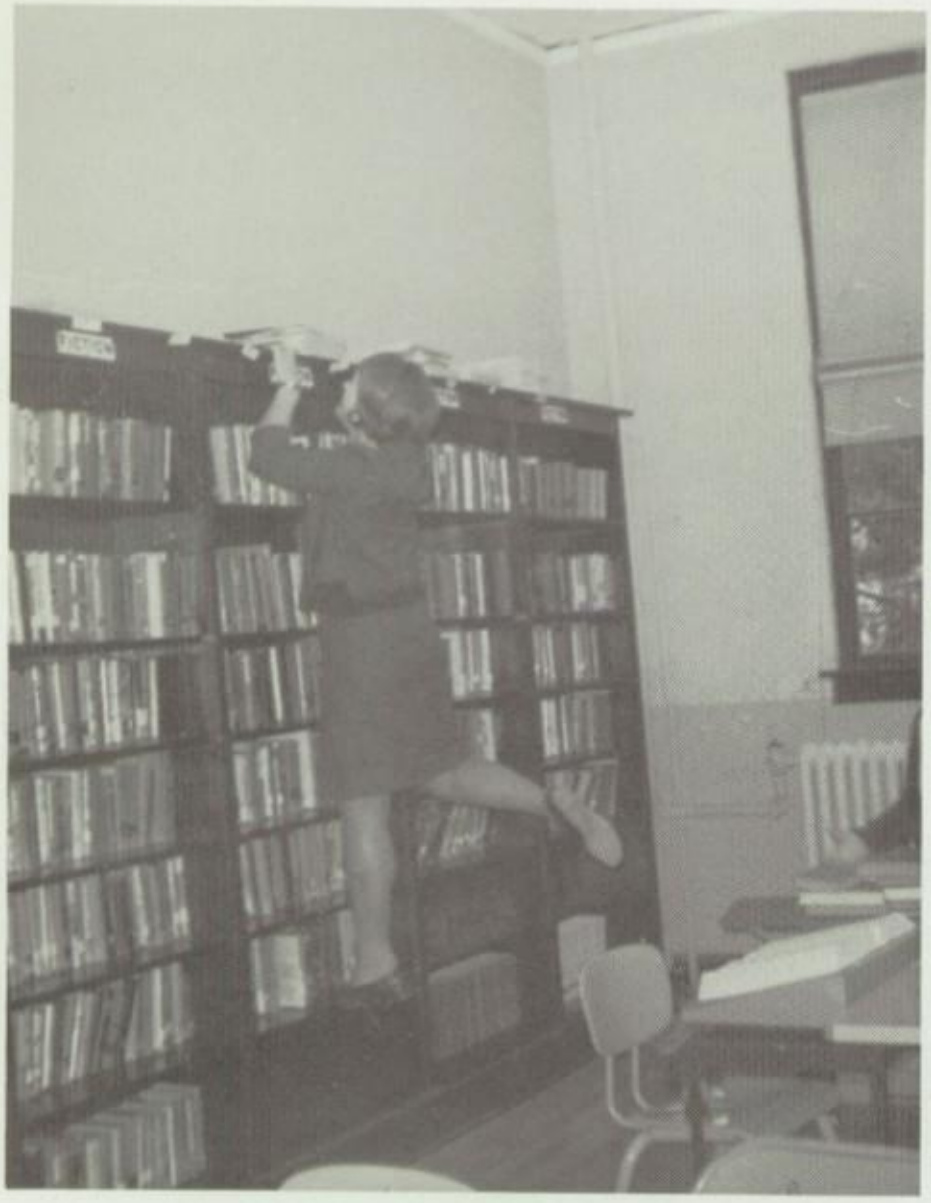
Our School Life

This year the Crimson staff attempted to capture a few moments at AHS, from the sublime to the ridiculous, from sadness to joy, and even a few cartoons to give it that familiar touch. This is our school life section and we have tried to make it just that, the everyday happenings at AHS. As you can see, our school is not all work; there is a time for both fun and studying. We hope that one of these snaps pertains to you, because you and those around you make our school life.

Happiness is a Freshman gathering material for his biology project.

Happiness is being held up by the "Lone Ranger" . . . or . . . A new car and contents.

Happiness Is . . .



Happiness is a student eager to learn!

Happiness is that good old team spirit?

Happiness is being in love.

Happiness is abnormal Juniors . . . and . . . a normal Senior!

Happiness

Happiness is Seniors preparing for Speech class.

Sitting around all day and doing nothin'.

Happiness is never quite knowing what you'll find in your locker.

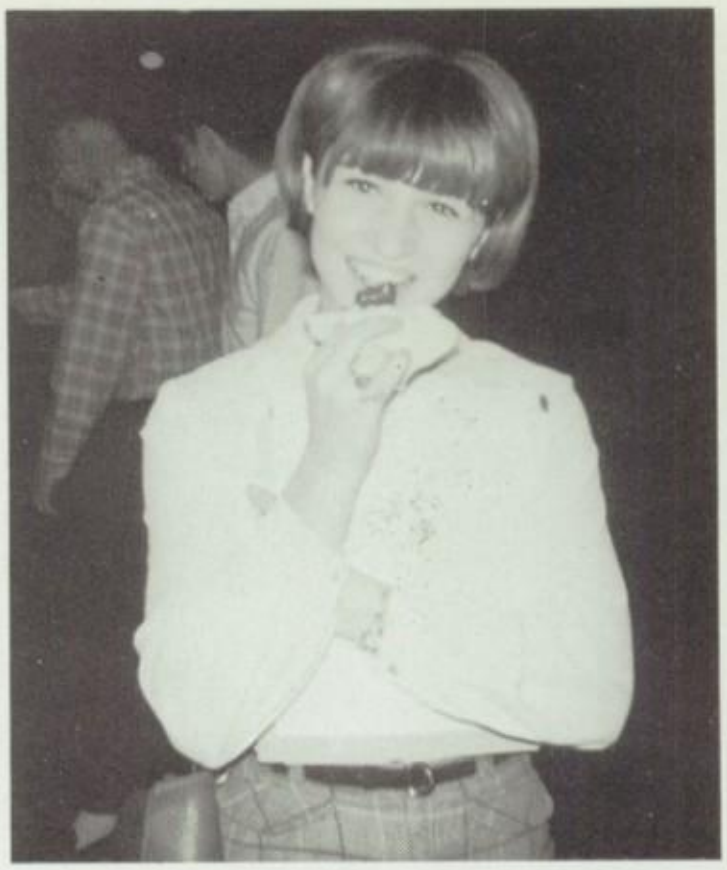
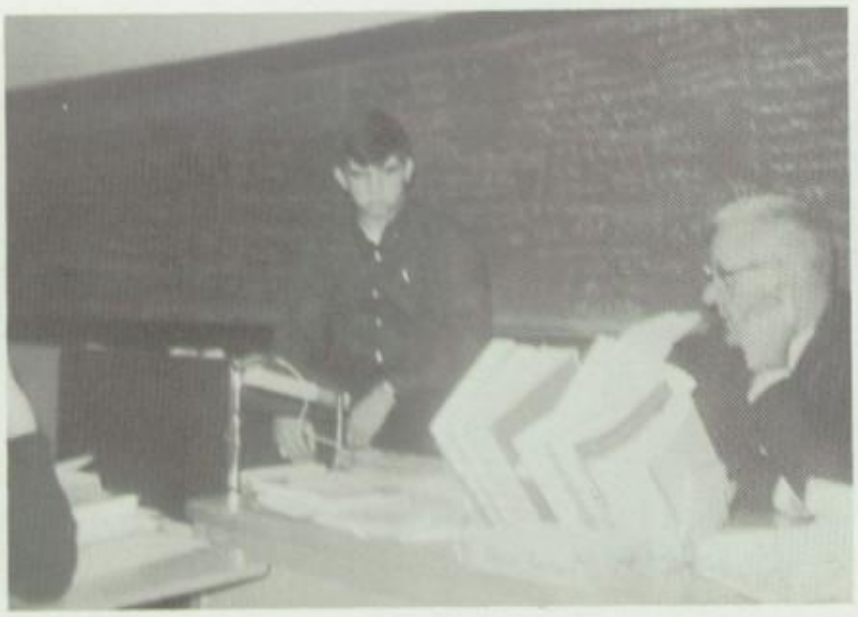
Happiness is being number one man on the basketball team . . . or . . . an efficient office.

Is . . .

Practicing for challenges? !



Happiness is getting fat.



Happiness is attempting to talk with four jawbreak-ers in your mouth . . . or . . . Sleeping on a head equipped with brush rollers.

Happiness is being good sports.

Happiness is a Home Economics major.

Football Homecoming 1966

On a windy but exciting night, Attica celebrated a glorious victory over North White 41 to 7. But the happiness of beating North White did not end there. At halftime a new Homecoming queen, Sandy Gremore, a Junior, was crowned. Included in her court were Christine Brown, Bella Borst, Monica Parlier, and Vanna Wolfe.

Five floats competed in this year's contest. The Seniors won first place with the Sophomores accepting second. The Freshmen won third place, and the Juniors and the Future Farmers of America also competing.

Happiness Is Anything

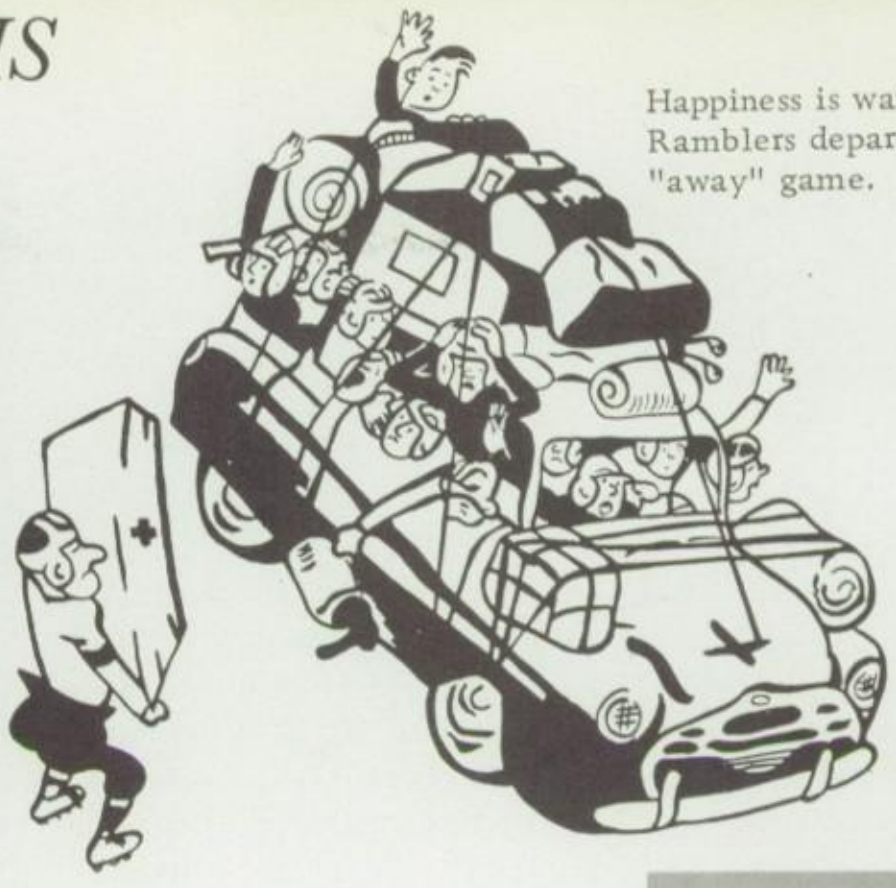
Happiness is the pride of being a city official. These students served as mayor, clerk-treasurer, of councilmen for one day during our centennial celebration. L. to R., FRONT ROW: R. Gremore; Lt. Gov. Rock, visiting for the day; L. Hanthorne, and S. Scott. SECOND ROW: J. Freeman; J. Mayers; P. Coffing; F. Raymundo; and J. Henderson.

Happiness is that dumb boy next to you who writes those stupid notes.

Happiness is not being afraid of the "big bad wolf" . . . or an industrious faculty member.

and Everything at AHS

Happiness is telling others that you have never seen these two before!



Happiness is watching the Ramblers depart for an "away" game.

Happiness is working hard on your term paper, and then flunking it!

Happiness is telling her that she ain't posta thuck her sumb!

Happiness is knowing your physics forward and backwards.

Basketball
Homecoming
1967

The crowning of the 1967 Basketball Homecoming queen was held February 17 during the halftime of the Rossville-Attica game. Susie Foster, a Junior, was crowned Homecoming queen by Sandy Gremore, our 1966 Football Homecoming queen. Susie's attendants were Senior Jane Alenduff, escorted by Don Gustus, Sophomore Cathy Hanthorne, escorted by Bill Gaylor, and Freshman Bella Borst, escorted by Tom Lambert. Susie's escort was Steve Clark. Robin and Rodney Andrews carried the roses and crown for the queen.

Victorious Homecoming

Susie, our Basketball queen, is being crowned by Sandy Gremore, our 1966 Football Homecoming Queen.

Coach and Mrs. Andrews' children, Robin and Rodney.

A tense moment . . .

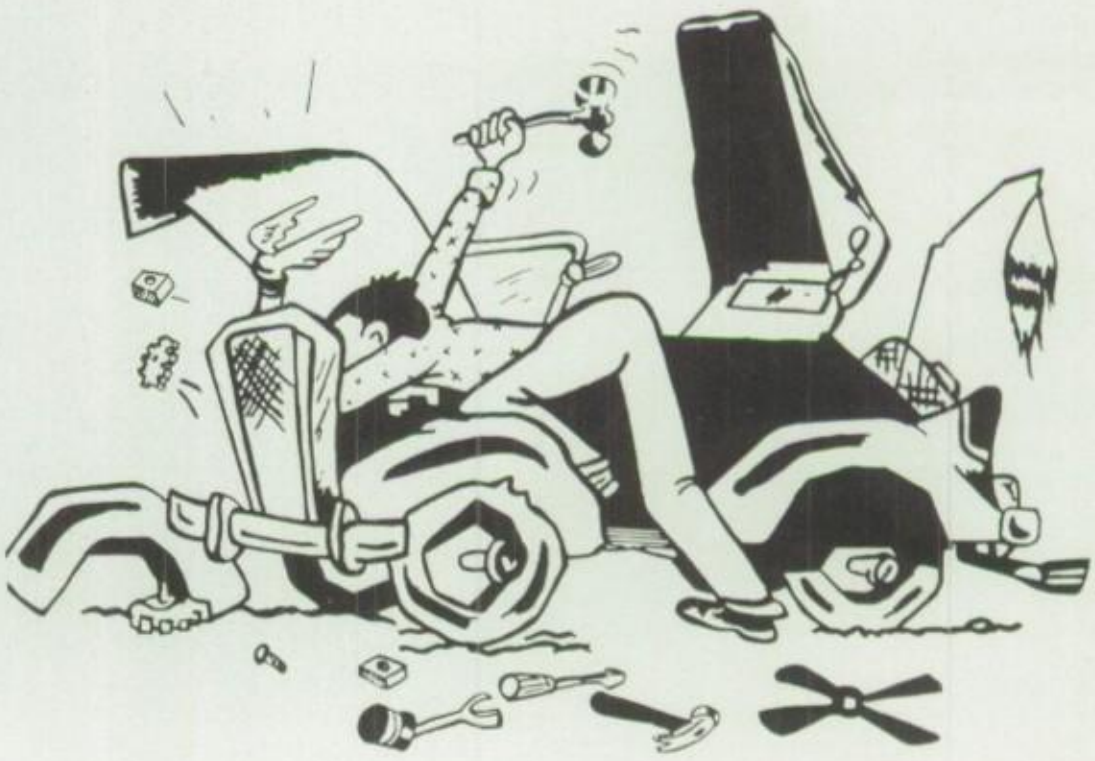
but . . . the outcome is a good one for both Susie and the Ramblers.

Happiness Is Different

Happiness is parking your gum behind your ear.

Happiness is a new way to get to class in less than one minute.

Happiness is dreaming . . . or . . . camera shy Seniors? ??



Happiness is the girls who run to see
Henry's muscles . . . or . . . "How to Assemble a Do-It-Yourself Rolls Royce in 20 seconds."

Things to Different People

Happiness is making yourself handsome in weightlifting class.

Happiness is being good buddies.

Happiness is Barb Morgan as queen of the Yell Club dance.

Happiness is dreaming about what you plan to do this summer.

Happiness is telling Mama that you had 1% fewer cavities.

Happiness is having a convocation instead of classes . . . or . . . giving your driver's training instructor ulcers!

Our AHS "Man of the Year"

Ron Johnson
Freshman

Again this year, the Crimson Press sponsored the "Man of the Year" contest held on February 18. The candidates were chosen by each of the high school classes and campaigns for each of the candidates were held throughout the week preceeding the dance. At a dance following the Delphi game, Senior Jim Jordan was selected "Man of the Year" Also competing for the honors were Dan Anderson, a Junior, Sophomore Bill Gaylor, and Ron Johnson, a Freshman.

This has been Attica's finest football team in the history of eleven man football. The team set a record in the number of wins and losses at 9-1 which beat last year's record of 7-2-1. They also set a record of the most points scored in one game and that was against Turkey Run.

The team is under the guidance of their new coaches, Mr. Harry Basan, head coach, and assistant coaches, Mr. Martin Alenduff and Mr. Jerry Neal, both former players of AHS.

Ted Wolfe and Dave Foster were the captains of the team leading them on offense and defense. Carl Jones won the award for All State Junior Tackle and Rick Ogborne was nominated for this award this year.

Assistant coaches M. Alenduff, J. Neal, captain Dave Foster, coach H. Basan, captain T. Wolfe.

Seniors . .

Little girls like little boys but I like Oreos!

Modeling our latest coats for this fashionable winter, Barbara Richey.

There she is, Miss America, Sarah.

Hey Dean, fingerlickin' good!

Keeping in shape, Carm?

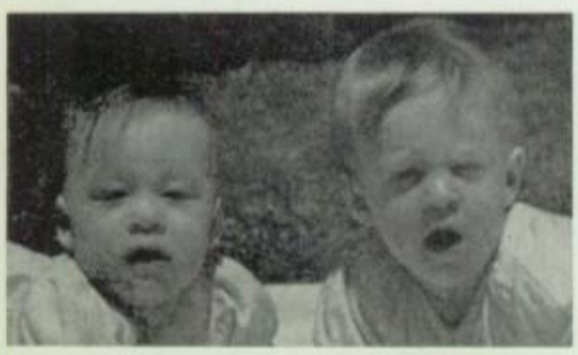
Why are you sitting on your hands, Maribeth?

Irene ain't got no toothies!

Darrell seems to be stumped.

Here's our country bred Linda Lange.

Posing at such a tender age, shame on you Les!



That's Mary on the left, listening, and Ann on the right talking.

Steve Keisler's theme song: I'm a short stubby Texan and I ride a big white stick horse.

Ah yes, here we find Debbie with the horn growing out of the ear!

. . . Now and Then

Ain't she sweet, Jodie?

Here we find Miss Dayleann Gorilla hanging from her favorite tree.

Our Ronnie G., stronger than dirt!

Nancy Busic, doa youa alwaysa talka witha the handsa?

Vanna, don't worry, Hoy Hogers will come to see you!

Would you believe our "vice" president, John Myers.

Honestly, Carolyn such moral problems!

Mike Nicolas is in Uncle Sam's drafty physical line.

Plain Jane, the insecure female, clutching to all emotional security.

Shy! I confess that I'm shy! So says Nancy M.

Linda Chastain, do you feel itchy, out of sorts? Then try Johnson's Baby Powder.

Jeri and her clucking motherly hen instinct coming forth.

What are you thinking about, Bill Batchelor?

Tonette is made with the younger woman in mind, right Judy Polson?

Senior Wills

I, JANE ALENDUFF, will my sharp tongue to any underclassman who is a coward, also another pair of knobby knees to the well-organized speech department, and finally to you, Mrs. Baldwin, to give your T-Bird that feminine touch, an iridescent red racing stripe.

I, GORDON ALLEN, will to Marvin Eller my good temper so that he can take what Dean Elmore said about his tiny flaw.

I, RICHARD L. ASHER, bequeath the AHS coaches, Basan, Alenduff, and Neal, and the football team (including all bench-warmers, suicide squad, and especially "Dizz" Anderson,) an anthology, 200,000 pages long, of my own jokes, puns, and wonderful jests to be read at every practice; also I leave to the team the only "thing" of the human race to translate, said book, and to carry on my work, my brother Greg, may he be an inspiration to "Dizz" and a living monument to my bench warming greatness. Finally I leave to Rick Ogborne a six hour recording of my record "Oggie, Oggie, Oggie, Oggie, Oggie, Oggie . . . "

I, IRENE BAILIFF, will my wobbling typing table to anyone who can keep up with it, to Mr. Hoon, a secretary to get all the papers and music in order, and to Mr. Stuteville, another "gravel Gertie" to pester him.

I, DAYLEANN BANTA, will to the Speech Department a book entitled "The Orations of Briggy".

I, BILL BATCHELOR, will to Mick Clark and Ted Wolfe the ability to play the drums.

I, DARRELL BRIER, will Mrs. Newton a new class of brilliant students, and to my sister, the ability to not fall on the last step like I did.

I, NANCY BUSIC, will to anyone who thinks they could get away with it, my ability to eat apples in class and not get caught.

I, BOB BUTLER, will our Lit. teacher a record that says "you all" all day.

I, LINDA CHASTAIN, will John Butler a dozen ink pens to get him through his Senior year, and to my brother, Ron, my ability to stay out of trouble.

I, MICK CLARK, will to Mrs. Newton a pair of colored glasses so she can tell blue slips from pink slips.

I, PAT CLARK, will to Paul Coffing my muscles to fight all the boys in Covington, and to John Myers, my '53 Chev to make fast get-aways when the Covington boys chase him out of town.

I, SARAH CLAWSON, will to Mr. Kozloski a broom, dedicated in loving memory of the great class of '67.

I, RONNIE COBBLE, will Tom Lambert the ability to be a nice guy like me.

I, PENNY COOPER, will Mr. Neal all of the unlined paper in the world so that he can furnish all that is needed for his classes next year. (I feel for them.)

I, PHIL CROWDER, will Tom Schmid my tremendous Algebraic ability so he will have time to practice basketball.

I, RALPH CRUDGE, will John Myers the strength to walk two blocks to school, and to Mr. Williams, a World War I airplane so he can fly to school with his aviator's hat on. To the class of '66, I will sunglasses, so that when they look into the mirror, they can see how green (immature) they really are. I will like it very much if Jane does not censor my testimony of generous gifts.

I, JODIE DILL, will Marlena Van Dame the ability to get into trouble and not get caught, and to Cheryl Bowman, the ability to stick with one boy at a time.

I, JERI DURR, will my Corvair to anyone who has the coordination to operate the clutch, turn the steering wheel, shift gears, and use the turn signal all at the same time.

I, MARVIN ELLER, will Dean Elmore my ability not to have so many flat tires.

I, DEAN ELMORE, will to Marvin Eller a lock of my hair so he won't look so bald.

I, LINDA FIX, will Barbara Richey the ability to dispose of unwanted articles at Sheridan's.

I, CARMIE FOSTER, will my coordination to anyone who thinks he can survive the falls, and to Mr. Neal, I will another go-go girl for his 5th period study hall.

I, JOHN FOSTER, will Mrs. Baldwin another 7th period Junior English class complete with a Tom Young and a Simon Stimpson.

I, JEFF FREEMAN, will to anybody with the right dimensions, my nickname.

I, RON GREMORE, will the Cross Country of 1967 a good season in C.C.F.L., and to Dave Foster the ability to pay off his debts.

I, DON GUSTUS, will to Art Bracken and Jim Small my old soft drink cooler.

I, TONI HARTMAN, will Soni and Chris the ability to push my Volkswagon when it stalls on me and not to freeze while doing so. Also, I will Mary Boothe a long playing record of "Hanky Panky".

I, DEBBIE HERCHE, will Nick Christenberry another study hall partner to discuss his personal life with next year.

I, RUSSELL HOWARD, will Mr. Denhardt a class of cooperative students.

I, JULIA JOHNSTON, will Debbie Bray a pair of gloves to leave in someone else's car and the courage to get them herself.

I, CARL JONES, will Dan Anderson a beaver lined football uniform, and to Bugs Lanum, the right tackle position on the football team.

I, DALE JONES, will to anyone my record for the number of cars I have had in the last four years, and to my brother, Dean, a clothespin to keep his loud mouth closed.

I, STEVE KEISLER, will to Mr. Sisk a class that will study, and to Bugs, my ability to play football and keep charts.

I, MIKE KIRTS, will to Mrs. Newton another smart Senior class and to Mr. Kirpatrick, a squirrel gun.

I, LINDA LANGE, will the cafeteria lots of knives to spread the hard butter with.

I, ANN LEE, will Irene Bailiff a pair of scissors to cut her hair as short as mine.

I, MARY LEE, will to Cathy Hanthorne and Kathy Reynolds the ability to keep out of trouble as well as I can.

I, MARIBETH LEFTON, will Mary Blickenstaff my old Packard to replace the 'Vett she got for Christmas, and to Tom Schmid, a new coach because the old one failed.

I, STEVE McGLADE, will all valuable goods to the one I like, whether they be near or far.

I, NANCY McKINNEY, will to Kathy Ray my ability to work in the windows at The Mart and not break out with the measles.

I, MIKE MANSFIELD, will to Chris Pruitt the ability to get along with Mr. Adams, to Rick Ogborne, a lifetime supply of transmissions and parts for his '57 Chevy so that he won't be in on any more of Ted or Max's deals, and to the boys who sit on the heater by the rear entrance, a "use the other door" sign so they can keep warm.

I, BILL MUNSON, will to the next chairman of Senior concessions the ability to obtain an unnecessary pass from his sponsor, and I will my ability to talk around Mr. William's questions, and to Mr. Adams, I will a set of Morris Starkeys and Tom Youngs to keep his electronics class moving.

I, JOHN MYERS, being of weak mind and weaker body, will to my brother, Larry, my parking place and my ability not to get stuck with one girl; to Keith Haynes, a bigger allowance so he won't have to hustle pool for a living; and to Fred Raymundo, my magnificent talent on the clarinet.

I, MICKIE NEWNUM, will the AHS attendance officer a new filing system, so that in the future when sisters skip school on the same afternoon, the school authorities won't get them confused.

I, PAM NEWNUM, will to any WILLING JUNIOR GIRL, the ability to skip for their first time and get caught. (Take it from one who knows, you WILL get caught!)

I, MIKE NICOLAS, will Mr. Lambert a new book of pink slips, and to Mrs. Evans, a pencil without an eraser so that she can't censor the GOOD Senior wills.

I, CAROLYN PERKINS, will Rita Stetler the ability to stand up in front of a paint store downtown.

I, JUDY POLSON, will to the Junior girls my personality and my ability to be friendly to everyone.

I, KATHY RAY, will my nickname "Dimps" to anyone who can meet the requirements.

I, BARBARA RICHEY, will Joanna Freed the power to get into trouble next year without my ingenious ideas.

I, DOUG SLINKER, will Mr. Kozloski a book on Pollock jokes.

I, DENIE SUTTLE, will Carla Ferling the ability to stand the next year, and to my brothers, Rick and Del, the ability to make it through old AHS without too many broken bones.

I, BOB TALBOTT, will to my younger brother my good grades on my report card, and to anyone who wants to chance it, my ability to sleep in classes and not get caught.

I, DAVE TALBOTT, will Mrs. Newton another student just like me, so she can keep her morale built up.

I, GERALDINE WHITE, will to the Junior girls manners so that they won't stare, and to Carolyn Perkins, a pillow to rest her head on in 6th period study hall.

I, LESLIE WOLFE, will to Barb Richey the nerve to give Paul Coffing a kiss, and also all of my old relics of a certain "bomber".

I, TED WOLFE, will to Mr. Basan a certain kind of license so that he can keep track of the football team on weekends, and to Mr. Andrews, a snake whip to discipline the boys so that they will get home by curfew time like I always did.

I, VANNA WOLFE, will to Leslie Kimbrell and Rick Ogborne a new chauffeur for their Sunday night drives.

We, the class of 1967, will the class of '68 our daredevil tactics and crazy personalities so that they may get a good laugh as they flunk Government and Literature.

We, the class of 1967, will the class of '69 the courage and ability to not let the class of 1970 get the best of them.

We, the class of 1967, will the class of '70 our modesty so that their egos may deflate.

We, the class of 1967, will the class of '71 the best of luck because four years is a long time.

With

Knowledge,

Memories,

And

Years of Happiness.

My intention as editor of this yearbook has been to make it a lasting book, one that will represent every aspect of life during this year, and a book that will be a part of every student's memory of good times shared by all. It is difficult to cram every person's life into this small book, but we have been able to capture a few moments of our lives at AHS. I sincerely hope that you will enjoy your Crimson and that each memory, whether pertaining to you or your friends, will find a small place in your heart.

I am deeply grateful to so many people for their help and reassurance in preparing this yearbook.

I would like to thank Sarah Clawson, Leslie Wolfe, Carmie Foster and many others connected with campaigns. A special thanks to Phil Peterson, Steve Hall and Henry Raymundo for their cooperation as photographers. Also a big thanks to Mr. Denhardt and Mr. Kozloski for helping our photographers. I wish to thank Patti Clossey, Cheryl Harding, Kathy Reynolds, Jannah Mather, John Myers and Ron Gremore for their fine work in helping to create our Crimson. Ron deserves thanks for his photography skills as well. A hearty thank you is due Leslie Kimbrell for her work as my assistant editor and to Maribeth Lefton and Sharon Stetler for their patience and time as head photographers. I believe that a very special thanks is due Mr. Fred Plocher, our yearbook representative; to Mr. Lee, Mr. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Pickell for their guidance; and most of all, to my family and Mrs. Evans, our sponsor.

Before I close, I have one final but everlasting thanks. I deeply appreciate every effort that each and every one of you at AHS has made to make this Crimson yours. Without you, there would be no school life, companionship, memories or happiness.

Your Editor
Jane Alenduff
